ANIDAHO and NOKWAREFO

The Akan term anidaho means awareness. The term nokware means truth.

Distributors are recognized by their commitment to the ideals of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion, Culture and Nationbuilding – Nanasom, Amammere ne Amansesew. Distributors of our products must embrace fully the principles contained within KUKUU-TUNTUM The Ancestral Jurisdiction, UBEN-HYENG The Ancestral Summons, UAB-ODWIRA Pa Nsaman Atemmu, MMARA NE KYI - Divine Law/Love and Divine Hate, AFURAKA/AFURAITKAIT - The Origin of the term ‘Africa’, NKWAMUA - Whole Life Journal, MOOR MEANS ‘DEAD’, KOKOBO, ANIDAHO and the other publications.

Distributors must have awareness – anidaho – of the perverse nature of the whites and their offspring, their culture and their false religions and reject them fully without compromise.

Prospective distributors can place an order and begin studying the e-book versions of our books while awaiting the first shipment. Individuals must review each of the works at least once to be an effective distributor. However, it is not necessary to memorize all of the information prior to becoming a distributor. Awareness of the material and its value to Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) people is what is important.

Prospective distributors can download the free pdf versions of each book as well as the videos associated with the books in addition to the UAB-ODWIRA video from www.odwirafo.com

Upon reviewing the publications and related video the new distributor becomes Nokwarefo (noh-kwah'ray-foh) one who upholds and dispenses truth. This is the definition of a distributor of our work. The Nokwarefo is not a representative of Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu (Akwamu Nation in North America). He or she has simply become a more well-informed, independent, self-employed Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) entrepreneur.
